ふしぎな花倶楽部会長、世界押花芸術協会会長
英国押花クラフトギルド名誉会員

Born in 1966, he developed a new technique for retaining the original colors of pressed flowers based on the technology he learned at college. He has been active as a pressed flower artist who creates original pressed flower pictures. In 1998, he became the first Japanese Grand Prix winner of the pressed flower competition at the Philadelphia Flower Show. He is highly admired as a pressed flower master in Japan, Taiwan and Korea. In Japan, more than 100,000 people enjoy pressed flowers of his style under the guidance of about 30,000 instructors who learned the technique from him. As President of the International Pressed Flower Art Society, he has been active in interacting with pressed flower artists in Europe, the United States, Australia and other countries.
